Science Academy Names Fellows

Columbus (March 11, 2005) The Ohio Academy of Science today named eight Ohioans and one Floridian honorary Fellows.

Fellows have rendered some special service to The Ohio Academy of Science or have made extensive, productive scientific, technological or educational contributions to society.

“Election as an honorary Fellow is the highest form of recognition by peers offered by The Ohio Academy of Science,” said Lynn E. Elfner, the Academy’s CEO.

The Ohio Academy of Science is a membership-based, volunteer-driven, not-for-profit organization. The Academy is the leading organization in Ohio to foster curiosity, discovery, and innovation and to unite all who value education, science, engineering, technology, or their applications to benefit society. The Academy conducts an annual meeting and science days, and publishes an international, multidisciplinary, scientific journal.

Fellows named today included:

Mr. H. Thomas Bartlett, Tiffin Columbian HS, Tiffin; ornithology and habitat protection

Dr. Robert Cahill Baumiller, Xavier University, Cincinnati; genetics and bioethics
